YATES & HAGAN, Just Right Clothiers.

A. F. AND A. M.

In the Silent City of St. Jude.

For those interested the DEMOCRAT secured a list of the Federal, Confederate and Mexican soldiers buried in St. Jude.

In another column you will find a list of the I O O F. who are at rest in the same city and are having some energy left, at some trouble to ourselves, we have compiled a list of the A F and A M's resting in the same silent city.

They are: B F Hickman, Rev J C Davis, D N Hendricks, J T Jones, Rev Willis, Dr J J Norton, Rev A P Linn, T J Griffith, Rev DeMoss, A Smith, Henry Fink, B C Bishop, J C Hartman, A F Barr, J L Nolen, W F Gander, Geo T Settle, W F Hymer, William F Hymer Jr., C C Lewis, Jno D Clark, Dr A Noland and Rev B W Fielder.

The above list is as complete as we could make it. If there is any omission kindly let us know not later than Monday June 8 1908.

We are not advertising a few odds and ends of discarded lines of shirts and collars and then pose as mercantile wonders, but the best and largest stock of clothing in Northeast Missouri.

WM A. SULLIVAN,
Cash Clothier.

Mrs. A. Steiner and sister-in-law, Miss Hilda Steiner of St. Louis, have arrived and will spend a month with Mrs. Steiner's parents, Isaac McIntire and wife.

We guarantee your money's worth at the Gem.

Miss Bessie DeLashmutt has returned from a visit with relatives at New London, Iowa.

Prof. Chas. B. Hugley, State Examiner of High Schools received a wedding present that was not only a surprise but a pleasing one. The Board of Regents phoned him Monday: You have been elected to a chair in the Maryville State Normal School. His many friends in this city will rejoice with him.

Mrs. L. H. Redman and daughters, Misses Minnie and Lilly left Monday night for Denver where they will spend the summer. And then—Well, we believe they will return to Missouri.

If you want to get into an atmosphere that is charged with buying and see business done on a jump, just come to The Big Clothing Store, you will see it.

WM. A. SULLIVAN,
Cash Clothier.

Mrs. D. R. Davenport and Miss Eleanor Scott are attending the State meeting of the P. E. O's., at Carthage as delegates of Chapter H. And Mesdames Dora Hallock and W. G. Williamson as visitors.

Your money back if you are not satisfied with the Gem's show. Try it.

July 4th will be celebrated at Shelby in royal style this year. The business men and citizens have put their shoulders to the wheel and propose to make it the best ever in North Missouri.

Judge and Mrs. W. B. Stevens returned Tuesday afternoon from a six months visit in Ft. Worth, Texas.

Willie Hawkins of Shelbyville, arrived Monday to visit his sisters, Mrs. Leona Gentry and Miss Georgia Hawkins.
